CFGP Welcomes New Chief Advancement Officer Peggy Sweeney Joins the CFGP Team

PHILADELPHIA, November 1, 2021 – Today, The Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia (CFGP) is delighted to welcome Ms. Peggy Sweeney to the CFGP team. Peggy joins CFGP as a member of the Senior Executive Management Team in her new role as Chief Advancement Officer.

Peggy comes to CFGP after a 16-year career at the National Liberty Museum (NLM) where she held the position of Chief Development Officer. In this leadership team role, she successfully developed and secured strategic, high-impact funding partnerships with local and national supporters.

Before her time with NLM, Peggy worked as Program Director at the John Templeton Foundation for six years. Prior to this, she was an Instructor of French at the College of William and Mary.

Peggy already has a deep-rooted history with CFGP; for the past three years she has served on the CFGP Grant Committee.

“Peggy’s experience and commitment to CFGP’s mission, combined with the dedication and expertise of our existing team, positions CFGP to achieve our long-term philanthropic goals. We are elated to have Peggy join our team,” said Sarah O. Hanley, President & CEO of The Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia.

Peggy holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Bucknell University and Master of Arts degree from The Pennsylvania State University. She currently resides in Philadelphia.

CFGP is happy to welcome Peggy to the team and looks forward to working with her to further our mission.
